

MORNING APPEAL.

THURSDAY, JULY 24

A NEW DEPARTURE.

While the California Press Association were in session in Santa Barbara some very important business was transacted. An executive session was held, to which the editor of the APPEAL was invited, and the question of the swindling advertising agencies of San Francisco was very fully discussed.

For years past the advertising agencies have controlled the advertising of the State and reaped enormous profits by dealing out the advertising to the press, and after deducting a 25 per cent. commission paid the balance in type, roller composition and bad ink. This is equivalent to a commission of 50 per cent., and is a swindle of the first water.

One firm whose slippery practices with newspapers are notorious, cleaned up $50,000 last year out of the publishers of the Pacific Coast. The papers did all the work, and they made all of the money.

The various publishers related their experience with this firm, and after comparing notes decided to cut loose from them altogether and place their advertising business in the hands of their own agent, whose charge for the work of securing advertising will be 5 per cent. and the balance will be paid in cash instead of old roller composition and plate matter.

The authorized agent of the California Press Association, is Jno. F. Uhlhorn, No. 305 Bush St., San Francisco, and he is one of the best solicitors of advertising on the Coast.

The writer, in behalf of the Nevada Association, assured the California Association that most of the Nevada publishers would be glad to combine with California and deal through the new agency. It is also proposed to combine and erect a paper mill to furnish paper exclusively for the Association at a rate about 50 per cent. lower than furnished by the present paper houses.

SHOULD BE TESTED.

When the Supreme Court denied the writ of Prohibition in the case of Judge Wells, it decided nothing in regard to the validity of the incumbent's appointment or of his official tenure. It merely decided that the action was erroneously brought, and that an application for a writ of quo warranto would have been the proper proceeding. The question whether a fourth District Judge can be legally appointed or selected is still an open one, and it should be disposed of before the next election, and if possible before the meeting of the State Convention. While it remains in doubt, litigants can not safely entrust their cases in a Court whose judicial power is liable to be upset at any time, and the longer the matter is delayed the greater will be the complications in the event of an adverse decision by the Supreme Court. It is to be hoped that proper proceedings will be brought to test the matter before Judge Wells' successor shall be elected or nominated.—Journal.

Under the circumstances the question naturally arises, Why did not the Court decide the question of Wells' right to hold the office of Judge in the Fourth District? The Court was called on to decide this question, and declined. It does not seem that a Court has that right. If it has, the people of Nevada would like some explanation.

Among the recent rumors is one to the effect that Senator Stanford will not seek a re-election, and that W. H. Mills, the land agent of the railroad company, will be brought forward to the high office. Mills, it is said, would be Mr. Huntington's choice for the Senatorship, and at the same time not offensive to Stanford.—Oakland Times.

Ex-Senator Fair is industriously cultivating a very flaming nose. It is of so positive a color that he sees his way home with it on dark nights, not needing a lantern. It is probably caused by the iron in some strong brand of mineral spring water.

M. Cohn's sale. DRY GOODS AT EASTERN PRICES. The public of Carson appreciate honest reductions and come to us in hundreds. Carson's high prices in Dry Goods are GONE FOREVER.

WHAT ON EARTH—Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing.—W. H. Chedick Druggist
